CONSUMER MEMBERSHIP AND ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

This Business Membership and Account Agreement (“Agreement”) covers the rights and responsibilities concerning accounts held by a business or organization account owner (“Account Owner”) and Hawaii State Federal Credit (“Credit Union”). In this Agreement, the words “you,” “your” and “yours” mean the Account Owner as well as each person signing a Business Account Card or other account opening document (“Account Card”) or for which membership and/or service requests are otherwise approved. The words “we,” “us,” and “our” mean the Credit Union. The word “account” means any one or more share or deposit accounts you have with the Credit Union.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT - To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, if applicable, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver’s license or other identifying documents.

1. CONTRACT – Your account with the Credit Union is held in the name of the Account Owner. By signing an account card or authenticating your request, or by adding, changing or continuing to use your accounts and services, you agree to the terms and conditions in this agreement, the account card, arbitration agreement (if applicable), business electronic services agreement, funds availability policy disclosure, overdraft disclosure, privacy notice, business rate schedule and account disclosure, business fee schedule, account receipt and other disclosures we provide to you, the Credit Union’s bylaws and policies, and any amendments we make to these documents from time to time, all of which collectively govern your membership, accounts and services. You also agree that your accounts and services are governed by applicable present and future federal and state laws, local banking customs and clearinghouse and other payment system rules.

2. MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY – To join the Credit Union, the Account Owner must meet the membership requirements including purchasing and maintaining a minimum share balance (“membership share”) as set forth in the Credit Union’s bylaws. You authorize us to check the account, credit and employment history, and obtain reports from third parties, including credit reporting agencies, for the Account Owner to verify your eligibility for the accounts and services you request and for other accounts, products, or services we may offer you or for which you may qualify.

3. ACCOUNT ACCESS

a. Authorized Persons. The following are deemed Authorized Persons who may establish accounts at the Credit Union and act on behalf of the Account Owner with respect to such accounts:

- If the Account Owner is a sole proprietorship, the business owner and any person designated by the business owner;
- If the Account Owner is a trust or estate, the trustees or personal representatives, and any person designated by them with proper authorization; or
- If the Account Owner has any other form of organization or is an unincorporated organization or association, the individuals vested with the power to make decisions concerning the operation of the Account Owner must designate the persons authorized to establish accounts at the Credit Union and transact business on such accounts on behalf of the Account Owner.

b. Authority. Any Authorized Person acting alone is vested with authority to open and close accounts on behalf of the Account Owner and transact business of any nature on such accounts, including but not limited to the following:

- Depositing, withdrawing and transferring funds into, out of and between one or more accounts;
- Signing checks, drafts and other orders for payment or withdrawal;
- Issuing instructions regarding orders for payment or withdrawal;
- Endorsing any check, draft, certificate, share certificate and any other instrument or order for payment owned or held by the Account Owner; and
- Receiving information of any nature about the account.

You agree that (1) we have no obligation to inquire as to the use of any funds or the purpose of any transaction made on your account by an Authorized Person; (2) we are not responsible for any transaction by an Authorized Person; (3) we have the right, but not the duty, to inquire as to the powers and duties of any Authorized Person; (4) we will not be deemed to have any notice of any breach of fiduciary duties unless we have actual notice of the wrongdoing; (5) we may decline to process any transaction or instruction without liability; and (6) we may rely on any actual, apparent, facsimile or specimen signature, password, access device or instruction that appears to be authorized by any Authorized Person acting alone, whether or not such person exceeds his or her actual authority, until notified in writing of a change (with reasonable time to process the change). You agree to defend, indemnify and hold us harmless against all claims, demands, losses, costs, damages or expenses including reasonable attorney’s fees suffered or incurred by us resulting from our reliance on the foregoing and any action described therein, or any act or omission of you or any purported Authorized Person, whether or not such person exceeds his or her actual authority, and we shall have no liability therefor. We will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction if we believe the signature is not genuine. It is your responsibility to provide us with specimen signatures of all Authorized Persons and to inform us immediately in writing of any changes, with sufficient time to process the changes. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature of any Authorized Person, we may honor any document that appears to bear the facsimile signature.

c. Access Options. You may access your account in any manner we permit including, for example, in person at one of our branch offices, at an ATM or point-of-sale device, or by mail, telephone, automatic transfer, internet access, or mobile application. Authorized Persons may execute additional agreements and documents we require to access, transact business on and otherwise exercise authority over your account. We may return as unpaid any check or draft drawn on a form we do not provide. Any losses, expenses or fees we incur as a result of handling such a check or draft will be charged to your account.

d. Credit Union Examination. We may disregard information on any check or draft, other than the signature of the drawer, the amount of the item and any magnetic encoding. You agree we do not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item solely because our procedures do not provide for sight examination of items.

e. POD Account Designations for Sole Proprietorship Accounts – A Payable on Death (POD) account designation is an instruction to the Credit Union that the account is payable to the Account Owner during the Account Owner’s lifetime and, when the Account Owner dies, is payable to all surviving POD beneficiaries/payees (subject to the Credit Union’s statutory lien for the deceased owner’s obligations and to any security interest or pledge granted by a deceased owner). The Account Owner may change the POD beneficiary at any time. Changes in beneficiary designation(s) must be provided to the Credit Union in writing and signed by the account owner on a form and in a manner acceptable to the Credit Union. Funds in accounts payable to more than one (1) surviving beneficiary/payee will be split equally among the beneficiaries/payees who are alive when the Account Owner dies. If no beneficiary/payee survives the Account Owner, the estate of the Account Owner is entitled to the funds. We are not obligated to notify any beneficiary/payee of the existence of any account or the vesting of the beneficiary/payee’s interest in any account, except as otherwise provided by law. This paragraph only applies to sole proprietorship accounts. Other business accounts cannot designate a POD beneficiary/payee.

f. Trust Accounts. When a trustee no longer holds office, the successor trustee will be authorized to act on the account after submitting necessary documentation.

4. BUSINESS USE ONLY – You agree the accounts are for business and commercial purposes only and will not be used for personal, family or household purposes.

YOU WILL NOT HAVE THE BENEFIT OF ANY LIMITATION OF LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO THE UNAUTHORIZED USE OF THE SERVICES OR CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS. YOU AGREE TO ACCEPT ALL RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE USE OR MISUSE OF THE ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES AND AGREE TO ASSUME THE LIABILITY DESCRIBED IN THIS AGREEMENT.

For accounts and services for consumer purposes, please contact the Credit Union.

5. DEPOSIT OF FUNDS REQUIREMENTS – Funds may be deposited to your accounts in any manner approved by the Credit Union and in accordance with any requirements set forth on our business rate schedule and account disclosure, business fee schedule, or other applicable agreement or disclosure. We have the right to refuse any deposit, limit the amount that may be offered for deposit, and return all or any part of a deposit. Deposits made by mail, at night depositories or other unstaffed facilities are not our responsibility until we have sufficient time to receive and process them.

a. Endorsements. We may accept transfers, checks, drafts, and other items for deposit into any of your accounts if they are made payable to or to the order of the Account Owner, even if they are not endorsed. You authorize us to supply missing endorsements of any Account Owner if we choose. If an insurance, government, or other check or draft requires an endorsement, we may require that it be endorsed as set forth on the item. We may but are not required to accept, whether for cash or other value, checks, drafts, or items made payable to the Account Owner, provided such items are endorsed with an original or facsimile signature of an Authorized Person. If a check, draft or other item that is payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to either or both, we may process the check, draft or item as though it is payable to either person.

Endorsements must be made on the back of the check or draft within 1½ inches from the top edge, although we may accept endorsements outside this space. However, any loss we incur due to a delay or processing error resulting from an irregular endorsement or other markings by you or any prior endorser will be your responsibility.

If we offer a remote deposit capture service and you have been approved to use the service to make deposits to your account, you agree that, prior to transmitting check or draft images, you will restrictively endorse each original check or draft in accordance with any other agreement with us that governs this service.

You agree to indemnify us from any claim and reimburse us for any damages we incur because you fail to properly endorse a check or item.

b. Collection of Items. We act only as your agent and we are not responsible for handling items for deposit or collection beyond the exercise of ordinary care. We are not liable for the loss of an item in transit or the negligence of any correspondent. Each correspondent will only be liable for its own negligence. We may send any item for collection. Items drawn on an institution located outside the United States are handled on a collection basis only. You waive any notice of nonpayment, dishonor, or protest regarding items we purchase or receive for credit or collection to your account. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving a payor financial institution extra time beyond any midnight deadline limits.

c. Restrictive Legends. Some checks, drafts or other items contain restrictive legends or similar limitations on the front of the item. Examples of restrictive legends include “two signatures required,” “void after 60 days,” “not valid over $500,” “with reservation of rights under UCC,” “without prejudice,” and “under protest.” You agree that restrictive legends are for your internal purposes only and are not binding on the Credit Union. We are not liable for payment of any check, draft or other item contrary to a restrictive legend or other limitation.

d. Final Payment. All items and Automated Clearinghouse (ACH) transfers credited to your account are provisional until we receive final payment. If final payment is not received, we may charge your account for the amount of such items or ACH transfers and impose a return item fee on your account. Any collection fees we incur may also be charged to your account. We reserve the right to refuse or return any item or funds transfer.

e. Direct Deposits and Preauthorized Transfers. We may offer direct deposit services, including preauthorized deposits (e.g., for payroll checks, Social Security or retirement checks, or other government checks) or preauthorized transfers from other accounts. You must authorize direct deposits by completing a separate authorization document with the third party. If you initiated a direct deposit through a third party, you must notify the third party to cancel or change it. Contact us to establish, cancel or change a preauthorized transfer between Credit Union accounts. Unless we are permitted by law to do so, after we have time to process notice of a bankruptcy filing, we will stop transferring funds from the bankruptcy debtor’s Credit Union account to pay Credit Union loans if such transfers were only authorized prior to the bankruptcy filing. If we are required to reimburse a government agency for any benefit payment directly deposited into your account, we may deduct the amount returned from any of your accounts, unless prohibited by law. If your account is overdrawn, you authorize us to deduct the amount your account is overdrawn from any deposit, including deposits of government payments or benefits.

f. Crediting of Deposits. Deposits made after the deposit cutoff time and deposits made on holidays or days other than our business days will be credited to your account on the next business day. Please refer to our Funds availability policy for information regarding when deposits are deemed received by us, and for information regarding when funds are made available. Please remember that even after we make funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are responsible for checks and other items you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

6. FUNDS TRANSFERS – Funds transfers we permit that are subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code, including Automated Clearinghouse (ACH) credit transactions and wire transfers, will be subject to such provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted by Hawaii (the state in which the Credit Union’s principal administrative office is located), except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or in the business electronic services agreement. ACH transfers are subject to rules of the National Automated Clearinghouse Association (NACHA). If we execute requests for funds transfers by Fedwire, such transfers are subject to the Federal Reserve Board’s Regulation J.

a. Authorization for Transfers/Debiting of Accounts. Any Authorized Person is authorized to make or order funds transfers to or from your account. We will debit your account for the amount of a funds transfer and will charge your account for any fees related to the transfer.

b. Right to Refuse to Make Transfers/Limitation of Liability. Unless we agree otherwise in writing, we reserve the right to refuse to execute any payment order to transfer funds to or from your account. We are not obligated to execute any payment order to transfer funds out of your account if the amount of the requested transfer plus applicable fees exceeds the available funds in your account. We are not liable for errors, delays, interruptions or transmission failures caused by third parties or circumstances beyond our control, including mechanical, electronic or equipment failure. In addition, we will not be liable for consequential, special, punitive or indirect loss or damage you may incur in connection with funds transfers to or from your account except as otherwise required by law.

c. No Notice Required. We will not provide you with notice when funds transfers are credited to your account. You will receive notice of such deposits on your account statements. You may contact us to determine whether a deposit has been received or you may use Phone Banking (Private Line), Online or Mobile Banking to verify recent deposits if you are enrolled in those services.

d. Interest Payments. If we fail to properly execute a payment order and such action results in a delay in payment to you, we will pay you dividends or interest for the period of delay as required by applicable law. The dividends or interest rate paid to you will be based on the lowest nominal dividend or interest rate we were paying on any account during that period.

e. Provisional Credit for ACH Transactions. We may provisionally credit your account for an ACH transfer before we receive final settlement. If we do not receive final settlement, we may reverse the provisional credit or require you to refund us the amount provisionally credited to your account, and the party originating the transfer will not be considered to have paid you.

f. Payment Order Processing and Cut-off Times. Payment orders (e.g., ACH and wire transfers) we accept will be executed within a reasonable time of receipt but may not necessarily be executed on the date they are received or on a particular date you specify. Cut-off times may apply to the receipt, execution and processing of funds transfers, payment orders, cancellations, and amendments. Funds transfers, payment orders, cancellations, and amendments received after a cut-off time may be treated as having been received on the next funds transfer business day. Information about any cut-off times is available upon request. From time to time, we may need to suspend processing of a transaction for greater scrutiny or verification in accordance with applicable law, and this action may affect settlement or availability of the transaction.

g. Identifying Information. If your payment order identifies the recipient and any financial institution by name and account or other identifying number, the Credit Union and any other financial institutions facilitating the transfer may rely strictly on the account or other identifying number, even if the number identifies a different person or financial institution.

h. Amendments and Cancellations of Payment Orders. Any Authorized Person may amend or cancel a payment order regardless of whether that person initiated the order. Any request to amend or cancel a payment order must be received by us with sufficient time to act upon the request. We may refuse requests to amend or cancel a payment order that we believe will expose the Credit Union to liability or loss. Any request to amend or cancel a payment order that we accept will be processed within a reasonable time after it is received. You agree to hold us harmless from and indemnify us for all losses and expenses resulting from any actual or attempted amendment or cancellation of a payment order.

i. Security Procedures. We may require you to follow a security procedure to execute, amend or cancel a payment order so that we may verify the authenticity of the order, amendment or cancellation. You agree that the security procedure established by separate agreement between you and the Credit Union is commercially reasonable. If you refuse to follow a commercially reasonable security procedure that we offer, you agree to be bound by any payment order, whether authorized or not, that is issued in your name and accepted by us in good faith in accordance with the security procedure you choose.

j. Duty to Report Unauthorized or Erroneous Funds Transfers. You must exercise ordinary care to identify and report unauthorized or erroneous funds transfers on your account. You agree that you will review your account(s), notices, and periodic statement(s). You further agree you will notify us of any unauthorized or erroneous transfers within the time frames described in the "Statements" section of this Agreement.

k. Recording Telephone Requests. You agree that we may record payment order, amendment and cancellation requests as permitted by applicable law.

7. ACCOUNT RATES AND FEES – We pay account earnings and assess fees against your account as set forth in our business rate schedule, and business fee schedule. We may change our business rate schedule and business fee schedule at any time and will notify you as required by law. If the Credit Union incurs any expenses, including but not limited to, administrative cost and reasonable attorney's fees, because of any action by you or a third party concerning your account, the Credit Union may charge such expenses to your account without prior notice to you. You will be responsible for any deficit.

8. TRANSACTION LIMITATIONS – We reserve the right to restrict withdrawals or transfers from your account and shall not be liable for any restrictive action we take regarding withdrawals, transfers, or the payment or non-payment of checks and drafts, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

a. Withdrawal Restrictions. We permit withdrawals if your account has sufficient available funds to cover the full amount of the withdrawal, and may otherwise honor withdrawal requests in accordance with our overdraft policies or any overdraft protection service you have established with us. Please see our overdraft disclosure for more information regarding your "available balance," overdrafts and other important information. Checks and drafts or other transfers or payment orders which are drawn against insufficient available funds may be subject to fees as set forth in our business fee schedule.

We may limit or refuse a withdrawal in some situations, and will advise you accordingly if, for example: (1) there is a dispute between Authorized Persons (unless a court has ordered the Credit Union to allow the withdrawal); (2) a legal garnishment or attachment is served; (3) the account secures any obligation to us; (4) required documentation has not been presented; (5) you fail to repay a Credit Union loan on time; (6) for non-entity accounts, a depositor is deceased; or, for entity accounts, the entity is in bankruptcy proceedings or has been dissolved and the required disposition of the account has not been made; (7) someone with authority to do so requests us not to permit the withdrawal; or (8) there are other circumstances which do not permit us to make the withdrawal. We also reserve the right to refuse any withdrawal which is attempted by any method not specifically permitted by us. We may require you to give written notice of seven days to sixty days before any intended withdrawals.

b. Transfer Limitations. We may limit the dollar amount or the number of transfers from your account. Please consult your business rate schedule and account disclosure and business electronic services agreement.

For accounts subject to regulatory transfer limitations, you may not make more than six (6) withdrawals and transfers to another Credit Union account of yours or to a third party during any month by means of a preauthorized, automatic or internet transfer, by telephonic order or instruction, or by check, draft, debit card, if applicable, or similar order. A preauthorized transfer includes any arrangement with us to pay a third party from your account upon oral or written orders, including orders received via ACH. When a transfer exceeds these limitations, we may refuse or reverse it, assess fees against your account, suspend your account, or close your account and transfer the balance to an account without such transfer limitations. There is no limit on the number of transfers you may make to a Credit Union loan account or on the number of withdrawals you may make if the withdrawal is made in person, by mail, messenger or at an ATM. There is also no limit on the number of telephone requests for withdrawals in the form of a check or draft which is then mailed directly to you, although we may impose a fee for such services.

9. CERTIFICATE ACCOUNTS – Any term share account is subject to the terms of this Agreement, our business rate schedule and account disclosure, business fee schedule, account receipt(s), if provided, and any other documents we provide for the account, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.

10. OVERDRAFTS AND DISHONORED ITEMS

a. Insufficient Funds/Overdrafts. Please see the Overdraft Disclosure for important information regarding overdrafts; your account balance (and differences between your "current balance" and your "available balance"); determining when your account is overdrawn (using your "available balance"); posting transactions to your account; pre-authorization commitments; overdraft payment service; overdraft and returned item fees; overdraft protection program (transfers); linking a line of credit; minimizing fees; and other information. Also see the funds availability policy, business fee schedule, and the overdraft protection authorization form for additional important information.

b. Dishonored Items. We may redeposit an item taken for deposit, cash or other value, or we may return the item to you and charge your account. If your account does not contain sufficient available funds to reimburse us for the amount of the item, you must repay us for the amount we are unable to collect from your account. If we choose to redeposit an item, we are not required to notify you that the item was returned unpaid. We may charge your account and/or seek recovery directly from you for any item that is returned due to your breach of warranty under the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in Hawaii (the state in which the Credit Union's principal administrative office is located).

11. CHECKS OR DRAFTS PRESENTED FOR PAYMENT IN PERSON – We may refuse to accept any check or draft drawn on your account that is presented for payment in person. Such refusal shall not constitute a wrongful dishonor of the check or draft, and we shall have no liability for refusing payment. If we agree to cash a check or draft that is presented for payment in person, we may require the presenter to pay a fee. Any applicable fees for cashing checks or drafts are stated in the business fee schedule.

12. POSTDATED AND STALEDATED CHECKS OR DRAFTS – You agree not to draw or issue any check or draft that is postdated. If you draw or issue a check or draft that is postdated, we will have no liability if we pay the check or draft before its payment date. We are under no obligation to pay a check or draft drawn on your account that is presented more than six (6) months after the date it was written; however, if the check or draft is paid against your account, we will have no liability for such payment. You agree not to deposit checks, drafts, or other items before they are properly payable.

13. REMOTELY CREATED CHECKS – For purposes of this paragraph, "account" means a transaction account, credit account, or any other account on which checks or drafts may be drawn. A remotely created check or draft is a check or draft created by someone other than the person on whose account the check or draft is drawn. A remotely created check or draft is generally created by a third party payee as authorized by the owner of the account on which the check or draft is drawn. Authorization is usually made over the telephone or through on-line communication. The owner of the account does not sign a remotely created check or draft. In place of the owner's signature, the remotely created check or draft usually bears a statement that the owner authorized the check or draft or bears the owner's printed or typed name.

If you authorize a third party to draw a remotely created check or draft against your account, you may not later revoke or change your authorization. If you provide your account number to a third party to charge your account by remotely created checks or drafts (items that do not bear an authorized signature but purport to be made with your authorization), you authorize us to pay such items, even though they may not contain your signature and may exceed the amount you authorized. It is your responsibility to resolve any authorization issues directly with the third party. We are not required to credit your account and may charge against your account any remotely created check or draft for which the third party has proof of your authorization. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold us harmless for claims, liabilities, attorney's fees, and other costs arising from processing of remotely created checks or drafts.

14. FOREIGN CURRENCY – All checks or drafts drawn on your account shall be payable in currency of the United States. You agree not to draw a check or draft that is payable in any foreign currency. If you give us an order to pay a check or draft in a foreign currency, we have the right to return the check or draft unpaid. However, if we pay the check or draft, we will not be responsible for the currency conversion or any fees assessed for collection, and you will be bound by our determination of the currency conversion rate, the data used and the manner in which we make the conversion.

15. STOP PAYMENT ORDERS

a. Stop Payment Order Request. Any Authorized Person may request a stop payment order on any check or draft drawn on your account. To be binding, the order must accurately describe the check or draft, including the exact account number, check or draft number, and exact amount of the check or draft. This exact information is necessary for the Credit Union to identify the check or draft. If we receive incorrect or incomplete information, we will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the check or draft. In addition, we must receive sufficient advance notice of the stop payment order to allow us a reasonable opportunity to act on it. If we recredit your account after paying a check or draft over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to transfer to us all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check or draft, and to assist us in any legal action.

b. Duration of Order. You may make an oral stop payment order which will lapse within fourteen (14) calendar days unless you confirm it in writing, or in a record if allowed by applicable law, within that time. A written stop payment order is effective for six (6) months and may be renewed from time to time in writing, or in a record if allowed by applicable law. We do not have to notify you when a stop payment order expires.

c. Liability. Fees for stop payment orders are set forth on our business fee schedule. Although payment of an item may be stopped, you may remain liable to any item holder, including us. You have the burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a binding stop payment order. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney's fees and all damages or claims related to our refusal to pay an item, as well as claims of the Account Owner or of any payee or indorsee for failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you. You may not stop payment on any certified check, official check, cashier's check, or any other check, draft, or payment guaranteed by us without our consent. If we consent, you will be required to indemnify, defend and hold the Credit Union harmless for any claims relating to the stop payment or check.

16. CREDIT UNION LIABILITY – Account services are provided on an “AS IS” basis without any warranty of any kind, either express or implied, including but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. To the full extent permitted by law, you agree that you are using account services at your sole risk and you assume all liability therefor; and we are not liable for special, indirect or consequential damages, even if we are aware of the possibility of such damages. However, if we wrongfully dishonor an item, we will be liable for actual damages proved that are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor, including consequential damages to the extent required by law.

We will not be liable if, for example: (1) your account contains insufficient available funds for the transaction; (2) circumstances beyond our control prevent the transaction; (3) your loss is caused by your or another financial institution's negligence; (4) your account funds are subject to legal process or other claim; (5) your loss is caused by acts or omission of you or third parties; (6) there is a failure or unavailability of communications, data processing, computer, software or internet provider, equipment, or other system; (7) there is any ambiguity, inaccuracy or omission in any instruction or information provided to us; or (8) there is any question regarding the authority of any person to act on your behalf.

Furthermore, you understand and agree that lax security measures, such as simple or easily accessible passwords, carry a significantly greater risk of loss than more rigorous measures, and you accept that risk. We are not liable if checks, drafts or other items were forged or altered so that the forgery or alteration could not be reasonably detected. We are not responsible for a check or draft that is paid by us if we acted in a commercially reasonable manner and exercised ordinary care. We exercise ordinary care if our actions or nonactions are consistent with applicable state law, Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearinghouse and other payment system rules, and general banking practices followed in the area we serve. You grant us the right, in making payments of deposited funds, to rely exclusively on the form of the account and the terms of this Agreement.

Except as otherwise required by law, you agree that our aggregate annual liability with respect to your account shall be limited to the greater of the annual fee (if any) charged by us to maintain your account, the annual fee (if any) for the applicable service charged by us, or $100. Any action against us must be commenced within twelve (12) months from the date of the event giving rise to the proceeding. You agree to cooperate with any loss recovery efforts and to subrogate your rights to the extent of any liability. Any conflict between what you or our employees may say or write will be resolved by reference to this Agreement.

17. UNAUTHORIZED USE OF CHECK OR DRAFT WRITING AND FACSIMILE SIGNATURE EQUIPMENT – You are responsible for maintaining the security of all facsimile signatures, check or draft writing equipment and supplies. You must promptly notify us in writing of the loss or theft of any checks or drafts or the unauthorized use of facsimile signature equipment, as well as the circumstances surrounding the loss, theft or unauthorized use. We are not liable for any unauthorized use of a facsimile signature.

18. PLEDGE OF SHARES, RIGHT OF OFFSET AND STATUTORY LIEN – Unless prohibited by law, you pledge and grant as security for all obligations you may have now or in the future, except obligations secured by your principal residence, all shares and dividends and all deposits and interest, if any, in all accounts you have with us now and in the future. If you pledge a specific dollar amount in your account(s) for a loan, we will freeze the funds in your account(s) to the extent of the outstanding balance of the loan or, if greater, the amount of the pledge if the loan is a revolving loan. Otherwise, funds in your pledged account(s) may be withdrawn unless you are in default. You agree we have the right to offset funds in any of your accounts against any obligation owed to us. Federal or state law, depending on whether we have a federal or state charter, gives us a lien on all shares and dividends and all deposits and interest, if any, in the account(s) you have with us now and in the future. Except as limited by state or federal law, the statutory lien gives us the right to apply the balance of all your accounts to any obligation on which you are in default. After you are in default, we may exercise our statutory lien rights without further notice to you.

Your pledge and our statutory lien rights will allow us to apply the funds in your account(s) to what you owe when you are in default, except as limited by state or federal law. If we do not apply or offset the funds in your account(s) to satisfy your obligation, we may place an administrative freeze on your account(s) in order to protect our statutory lien rights and may apply or offset the funds in your account(s) to the amount you owe us at a later time. The statutory lien and your pledge do not apply to any Individual Retirement Account or any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security. By not enforcing our right to apply or offset funds in your account(s) to your obligations that are in default, we do not waive our right to enforce these rights at a later time.

19. TRANSFER OF ACCOUNT – All accounts are nonassignable and nontransferable to third parties except by us.

20. LEGAL PROCESS – If any legal action is brought against your account, we may pay out funds according to the terms of the action or refuse any payout until the dispute is resolved, as permitted by law. Any expenses or attorney's fees we incur responding to legal process may be charged against your account without notice, unless prohibited by law. Any legal process against your account is subject to our lien and security interest.

21. ACCOUNT INFORMATION – Upon request, we will give you the name and address of each agency from which we obtain a credit report regarding your account. We agree not to disclose account information to third parties except when: (1) it is necessary to complete a transaction; (2) the third party seeks to verify the existence or condition of your account in accordance with applicable law; (3) such disclosure is made to comply with the law or an order issued by a court or government agency; (4) you give us written permission; or (5) as otherwise permitted by applicable law. We may provide information to credit bureaus about an insolvency, delinquency, late payment or default on your account to include in your credit report.

a. Name or Address Changes. You are responsible for promptly notifying us of any name or address change. The Credit Union is only required to attempt to communicate with you at the most recent address you have provided to us. We may require all name and address changes to be provided in writing. If we attempt to locate you, we may impose a service fee as set forth on our business fee schedule.

b. Notice of Amendments. Except as prohibited by applicable law, we may at any time change the terms of this Agreement. We will notify you, in a manner we deem appropriate under the circumstances, of any changes in terms, rates, or fees as required by law.

c. Effect of Notice. Any written notice you give us is effective when we receive it and have time to process it. Any written notice we give to you is effective when it is provided electronically or is deposited in the U.S. mail, postage prepaid and addressed to you at your statement mailing address, and will be effective whether or not received by you. Notice to any Account Owner or Authorized Person is considered notice to all Account Owners.

d. Electronic Notices. If you have agreed to receive notices electronically, we may send you notices electronically and discontinue mailing paper notices to you until you notify us that you wish to reinstate receiving paper notices.

e. Security Messages. In order to help mitigate harm to you and your account, we may contact you on any telephone number associated with your account, including a wireless telephone number (i.e., cell phone number), or by email, to deliver to you any security messages related to suspected or actual fraudulent activity on your account, data security breaches or identity theft following a data breach, money transfer or any other exigent messages permitted by applicable law. To receive these security messages, it is important that you inform us if your telephone or email address changes. You will have an opportunity to opt-out of security messages at the time of delivery.

f. Protect Your Identity. Please note we will never contact you by email, text, telephone, mail or other type of correspondence and request your PIN, password, username, or other access code. If you are contacted by anyone asking for your PIN, password, username or other access code, you should refuse and contact us immediately. You may be the target of identity theft.

g. Time-Sensitive Messages. If you have an important message for us that is time-sensitive (for example, if you want to report a lost or stolen ATM card or credit card, if you want to stop payment on a check, or if you have other information which requires prompt action), do not rely on email. Instead, please telephone us immediately. We also may require that you send us your comments in writing.

h. General Email Messages. You may send us general email messages by contacting us at memberservices@hsfcu.com. Do not include any personal or confidential information in any email that you send to us, whether through our Website or through a different email provider. Email is NOT SECURE. Never email your account number, PIN, password, username, other access code, or social security number.

i. Confirmation. Whenever you email us, if you do not receive a response from us (not counting a receipt automatically generated by the computer) within one business day, please contact us to confirm that we received your email and are addressing your concern.

23. YOUR ADDITIONAL WARRANTIES, AUTHORIZATIONS, AND AGREEMENTS – You warrant and agree that (1) the Account Owner has been duly formed and is in good standing with the Hawaii DCCA (not applicable to sole proprietorships), or is an Association of Apartment Owners, Association of Unit Owners, or Home Owners Association duly created by CPR or CCRs filed with the Hawaii Real Estate Commission; (2) all trade or dba names are registered with the Hawaii DCCA and belong to the Account Owner; (3) each Authorized Person is duly authorized to transact business on behalf of the Account Owner, and shall not exceed the authority granted by the Account Owner; (4) the Credit Union will be notified in writing in advance of any change in the Account Owner's composition, authority, name or trade names, ownership, legal structure, management, constituent documents, dissolution, bankruptcy; or any change in authority of any Authorized Person; and (5) you will provide us with all documentation upon request. Any revocation shall not affect any items in process at the time notice is processed.

24. TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER AND BACKUP WITHHOLDING – You agree that we may withhold taxes from any dividends or interest earned on your account as required by federal, state or local law or regulations. Your failure to furnish a correct Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) or meet other requirements may result in backup withholding. If your account is subject to backup withholding, we must withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service a percentage of dividends, interest, and certain other payments. If you fail to provide your TIN within a reasonable time, we will close your account and return the balance to you, less any applicable service fees.

a. Contents. If we provide a periodic statement for your account, you will receive a statement that shows the transactions and activity on your account during the statement period. For checking (share draft) accounts, you understand and agree that your original check or draft, when paid, becomes property of the Credit Union and may not be returned to you, but copies may be retained by us or payable through financial institutions and made available upon your request. You understand and agree that statements are made available to you on the date they are mailed to you or, if you have requested, on the date they are made available to you electronically or otherwise. You also understand and agree that checks, drafts or copies thereof are made available to you on the date the statement is mailed or made available to you, even if the checks or drafts do not accompany the statement.

b. Examination. You are responsible for promptly examining each statement or other notice (including via online and mobile banking) upon receiving it and reporting any irregularities to us. If you fail to report to us, within a reasonable time after receiving your statement or other notice, any irregularities, such as forged, altered, unauthorized, unsigned, or otherwise fraudulent items drawn on your account, erroneous payments or transactions, or other discrepancies that are reflected on your statement or other notice, we will not be responsible for your loss. In addition, we will not be responsible for any such items, payments, transactions, or other discrepancies reflected on your statement or other notice if you fail to notify us within 14 days after the date the statement or notice was sent or made available to you, or you otherwise discovered the discrepancy, whichever is soonest. We also will not be liable for any items that are forged or altered in a manner not detectable by a reasonable person, including the unauthorized use of facsimile signature equipment or any signature or other authorization resembling an authorized signature or other authorization on file with us.

c. Notice to the Credit Union. You agree that the Credit Union's retention of checks or drafts does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements or other notices or the time limit for notifying us of any errors. The statement will be considered correct for all purposes, and we will not be liable for any payment made or charge to your account unless you notify us in writing within the above time limit for notifying us of any errors.

We reserve the right to make a final reasonable determination regarding whether and in what amount any adjustment shall be made. If you fail to receive a periodic statement, you agree to notify us within 14 days of the time you regularly receive a statement.

d. Current Records. If we mail you a statement, we will send it to the last known address shown in our records. If you have requested that we send your statement electronically, we will send it to the last e-mail address shown in our records.

26. INACTIVE AND ABANDONED ACCOUNTS – If you have not made any transactions to or from your checking account over a period of 12 consecutive months, or to or from your savings account for a period of 36 consecutive months, we may classify your account as inactive if you do not respond to correspondence sent to your last known address on file. Beginning one month following the date your account became inactive, and while your account remains inactive, we will charge your account the monthly Inactive Account Fee as set forth in the business fee schedule for processing your inactive account. We will mail a notice to you in advance of your account being classified as inactive. Monthly minimum balance service charges applicable to your account will not be charged; however, we will impose a monthly inactive account fee on the account for as long as it remains inactive. If you make a transaction to or from your account, or contact us to request a change to active status, we will reclassify your account as active. However, all inactive account fees are non-refundable even if your account is subsequently reclassified as active. You authorize us to transfer funds from another account of yours to cover any service fees, if applicable. To the extent allowed by law, we reserve the right to transfer all funds in an inactive or dormant account to an account payable or reserve account and to suspend any further account statements.

After five (5) consecutive years of inactivity without contact from you, your account will be presumed abandoned. We will charge your account an Abandoned Property Processing Fee as set forth in the business fee schedule in the month your inactive account is processed for escheatment. Funds in abandoned accounts will be reported and remitted in accordance with state law. Once funds have been turned over to the state, we have no further liability to you for such funds, and if you choose to reclaim such funds, you must apply to the appropriate state agency. We reserve the right not to send statements on accounts we consider inactive.

27. UNLAWFUL INTERNET GAMBLING AND OTHER PROHIBITED OR ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES – You agree that neither the account, nor any access device or Credit Union service will be used in connection with any unlawful internet gambling, money service business (e.g., cash depository, ATM or cash dispensing service, etc.), marijuana related business, or illegal activity. We may terminate your account relationship if any such activity is engaged in or suspected (now or in the future).

28. SPECIAL ACCOUNT INSTRUCTIONS – You may request that we facilitate court-ordered account arrangements. However, because we do not give legal advice, we cannot counsel you as to which account arrangement most appropriately meets the specific requirements of your court order. If you ask us to follow any instructions that we believe might expose us to claims, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, we may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to indemnify us or post a bond or provide us with other protection. We may require that account changes requested by you, such as adding or closing an account or service, be evidenced by a signed Account Change Card or other document which evidences a change to an account and accepted by us.

29. RESTRICTION OF SERVICES – We may suspend or limit services or expel a member, if a member engages in prohibited conduct. Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to: physical or verbal behavior that is abusive, discriminatory, offensive, profane, malicious, threatening, disruptive, harassing, slanderous, dangerous, fraudulent, illegal, dishonest or deceptive; unauthorized possession of firearms or weapons on Credit Union property or at a Credit Union event; unlawful possession, use or being under the influence of controlled substances or alcohol on Credit Union property; or attempting to coerce or interfere with Credit Union employees in the performance of their duties. Services also may be suspended or limited if a member causes the Credit Union to suffer a loss (for example; unpaid loans or other obligations), conducts fraud (for example; deposit of counterfeit items, unauthorized activity on the member's account, etc.); deliberately or repeatedly violates Credit Union account requirements; fails to maintain adequate security procedures to safeguard accounts; fails to maintain required par share value; or otherwise fails to maintain Credit Union accounts in good standing. We also may restrict account access and services if your account is being misused, or as otherwise permitted by law. This policy also applies to Authorized Persons and other authorized users. Action taken by the Credit Union will have a rational basis in response to the prohibited conduct or activity, consistent with applicable law. If services are suspended or limited, a member will retain the right to vote in annual and special meetings and to maintain a share account. Pursuant to the Credit Union's bylaws and the Federal Credit Union Act, a member may be expelled at a special meeting called for such purpose.

30. TERMINATION OF ACCOUNT – We may terminate your account at any time without prior notice to you or may require you to close your account and apply for a new account. We are not responsible for payment of any check, draft, transfer or item after your account is terminated; however, if we pay a check, draft, transfer or other item after termination, you agree to reimburse us for the amount of our payment as well as any applicable fees.

You may terminate this Agreement by closing all of your accounts. If your account is a dividend or interest-bearing account, any deposit or part of a deposit that we have returned or attempted to return to you upon termination of your account will no longer bear dividends or interest, as applicable. When the account is closed, you will receive the balance remaining in the account after we have made all appropriate deductions and charges. The termination of this Agreement and the account does not release you from the obligation for payment of accrued fees or your liability for any checks or drafts in process.

31. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP – You may terminate your membership by giving us written notice or by withdrawing your minimum required membership share, if any, and closing all of your accounts. You may be denied services for causing a loss to the Credit Union, or you may be expelled for any reason as allowed by applicable law.

32. DEATH OF ACCOUNT OWNER – If an account is held in the name of an individual person or a business that is organized as a sole proprietorship, we may continue to honor all transfer orders, withdrawals, deposits and other transactions on the account until we are notified of the Account Owner's death. Once we are notified of an Account Owner's death, we may pay checks or drafts or honor other payments or transfer orders authorized by the Account Owner for a reasonable period after that date unless we receive instructions from any person claiming an interest in the account to stop payment on the checks, drafts or other items. We may require anyone claiming a deceased Account Owner's account funds to indemnify us for any losses resulting from our honoring that claim. This Agreement will be binding upon any heirs or legal representatives of any Account Owner that is an individual or business organized as a sole proprietorship.

33. THIRD PARTY SERVICES AND EXTERNAL WEBSITES – We may provide notices or links to external websites regarding third party services and products available to Credit Union members. Please review the terms and conditions of use carefully. Such services and products are not obligations of, nor endorsed or guaranteed by the Credit Union nor the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund. We do not make any express or implied representation or warranty to you concerning the quality, safety or suitability of external websites, or their services or products. Alternative services and products may be obtained from other providers of your choice. External websites are not under our control and have different data-collection, privacy, security and other policies. Using the links may identify you as a Credit Union member to the external website operator

34. TIME – You agree that the time periods set forth in this Agreement and our disclosures and other agreements are reasonable, including the time period by which you must notify us as to any error or discrepancy in your account.

35. WAIVER OF RIGHTS – We reserve the right to waive or delay the enforcement of any provision of this Agreement with respect to any transaction or series of transactions. A waiver or delay of our rights at any time shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other rights or a waiver of the same rights at a future time.

36. SEVERABILITY – If a court holds any portion of this Agreement to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed revised and shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted. The remainder of this Agreement shall not be invalid or unenforceable and will continue in full force and effect. All headings are intended for reference only and are not to be construed as part of this Agreement.

37. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION AND VENUE IN HAWAII; APPLICABLE LAW; ENFORCEMENT – This Agreement is governed by the bylaws of the Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, the laws and regulations of the State of Hawaii (excluding its choice of law provisions) to the extent not preempted by federal law, and local clearinghouse and other payment system rules, as amended from time to time. Any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts in Honolulu, Hawaii (the county in which the Credit Union's principal administrative office is located).

Except as otherwise required by law, you are liable to us for any losses, costs or expenses we incur resulting from your failure to follow this Agreement. You authorize us to deduct any such losses, costs or expenses from your accounts without prior notice to you. If we bring a legal action to collect any amount due under or to enforce this Agreement, we shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment of reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions.

38. NEGATIVE INFORMATION NOTICE – We may report information about your loan and deposit accounts to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your accounts may be reflected in your credit report.

39. MONITORING AND RECORDING COMMUNICATIONS – We may monitor and record communications between you and us, including telephone conversations, electronic messages, electronic records, or other data transmissions that affect your accounts or other products and services. Except as otherwise provided by applicable law, you agree we may monitor and record such communications without your approval or further notice to you.

Federally Insured by NCUA

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT (ADDENDUM TO THE MEMBERSHIP AND ACCOUNT AGREEMENT)

You and the Credit Union agree that any and all disputes arising out of, affecting, or relating to your accounts, or the products or services the Credit Union has provided, will provide or has offered to provide to you, and/or any aspect of your relationship with the Credit Union (hereafter referred to as the "Claims") that are threatened, made, filed or initiated after the Effective Date (defined below) of these Arbitration and Waiver of Class Action provisions (collectively, "Arbitration Agreement"), even if the Claims arise out of, affect or relate to conduct that occurred prior to the Effective Date, shall, at the election of either you or us, be resolved by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in accordance with its applicable rules and procedures for consumer disputes ("Rules"), whether such Claims are in contract, tort, statute, or otherwise. The Rules can be obtained on the AAA website free of charge at www.adr.org; or, a copy of the Rules can be obtained at any Credit Union branch upon request.

Neither party shall be entitled to demand the arbitration of an action filed in small claims court (or an equivalent court in the state in which the member resides), for any claim or dispute within the scope of the small claims court's jurisdiction. But if a claim is brought, transferred, removed or appealed to a different court, such claim shall be subject to arbitration pursuant to this Arbitration Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act set forth in Title 9 of the U.S. Code to the fullest extent possible, notwithstanding any state law to the contrary, regardless of the origin or nature of the Claims at issue.

The Claims shall be resolved by a single arbitrator appointed by the AAA. The arbitrator shall be an attorney or retired judge with experience and knowledge regarding financial institutions and transactions.

We will advance and/or pay, as applicable, the fees and costs of the arbitration pursuant to this Agreement (i) if applicable law requires us to, (ii) if you prevail in the arbitration, or (iii) if we must advance such fees and costs in order for this arbitration provision to be enforced, subject to the arbitrator's award, if any, of arbitration fees and costs to the prevailing party. In each case, each party will pay for its own attorney fees and costs, if any, for prosecuting and defending claims, except that the arbitrator may award the prevailing party its reasonable attorney fees and costs, including expert witness fees.

For consumer accounts, the arbitration hearing shall be conducted at a location within fifty miles of your residence (if in the United States) at the time the arbitration is initiated; if your residence is outside of the United States, the arbitration hearing will occur in Honolulu, HI. For all disputes regarding business accounts, the arbitration hearing will occur in Honolulu, HI.

All statutes of limitations or other defenses relating to the timeliness of the assertion of a dispute or claim that otherwise would be applicable to an action brought in a court of law must be followed by the arbitrator, and the commencement of an arbitration under this Arbitration Agreement shall be deemed the commencement of an action for such purposes.

The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding and may be entered as a judgment in any state or federal court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator may award any remedy provided by the substantive law that would apply if the action were pending in court, including public injunctive relief.

Any issue concerning whether or the extent to which any claim is subject to arbitration, including issues relating to the validity or enforceability of this arbitration provision, shall be determined by the arbitrator. Only a court, and not an arbitrator, however, shall determine the validity and effect of the class action waiver below.

For more details, refer to the American Arbitration Association's website, www.adr.org, or call the American Arbitration Association's Customer Service telephone number at (800) 778-7879, or contact any Credit Union branch or call the Credit Union at 587-2700 (Oahu) or toll-free 1 (888) 586-1056 (Continental U.S. and Neighbor Islands).

This Arbitration Agreement does not preclude you from bringing issues regarding your accounts to the attention of any federal, state or local agency or entity. Such agency or entity may be able to seek relief on your behalf.

Nothing in this Arbitration Agreement shall limit your or our right, whether before, during, or after the pendency of any arbitration proceeding, to exercise any self-help remedies, such as set-off or repossession and sale of collateral, or to obtain provisional remedies (including but not limited to, injunctive relief or interpleader relief). The exercise of such rights will not constitute a waiver of the right to submit any dispute to arbitration.

Exception for Covered Loans to Covered Borrowers under the Military Lending Act. The arbitration provision does not apply to Covered Loans made to Covered Borrowers, as prohibited under the Military Lending Act, 10 USC § 987(e)(3).

WAIVER OF CLASS ACTION – YOU AND WE EACH AGREE THAT ANY AND ALL DISPUTES, WHETHER SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION OR DECIDED BY A COURT, MUST BE BROUGHT IN THE PARTY'S INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND NOT AS A CLASS ACTION PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. YOU AGREE TO WAIVE THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION OR LITIGATE ON A CLASS-WIDE BASIS. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE EXPRESSLY AND KNOWINGLY WAIVED THESE RIGHTS.

YOUR RIGHT TO OPT-OUT: ARBITRATION AND WAIVER OF CLASS ACTION – IF YOU DO NOT WANT THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT TO APPLY, YOU MAY OPT-OUT BY SENDING A WRITTEN OPT-OUT REQUEST TO THE CREDIT UNION. YOUR OPT-OUT REQUEST MUST BE POSTMARKED WITHIN SIXTY-ONE (61) DAYS AFTER YOUR FIRST RECEIPT OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT. YOUR OPT-OUT REQUEST MUST INCLUDE YOUR FULL NAME, ADDRESS, TELEPHONE NUMBER, AND PERSONAL SIGNATURE, WITH A STATEMENT THAT YOU WANT TO OPT OUT OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT. YOU MUST MAIL YOUR OPT- OUT REQUEST TO: HAWAII STATE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION – ATTN: COMP ARBITRATION, P. O. BOX 3072, HONOLULU, HI 96802-3072. OPTING OUT WILL NOT TERMINATE ANY OTHER AGREEMENTS OR ACCOUNTS YOU MAY HAVE WITH THE CREDIT UNION AND SHALL NOT AFFECT ANY OTHER RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OWED BY OR TO YOU.

Effective Date. This Arbitration Agreement is effective on the 61st day after we first provide it to you ("Effective Date"), unless you opt-out in accordance with the requirements of YOUR RIGHT TO OPT- OUT provision above.

This Arbitration Agreement shall survive your death, the closing of any of your accounts, or the termination of any of your business or transaction(s) with us, and any bankruptcy filing to the extent consistent with applicable bankruptcy law.

In the event the Class Action Waiver in this Arbitration Agreement is found to be unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of this Arbitration Agreement shall also be unenforceable. If any other term or provision of this Arbitration Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, it shall be deemed revised and enforced to the maximum extent permissible, and the remaining provisions shall be enforced without regard to the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

BUSINESS ELECTRONIC SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Business Electronic Services Agreement covers the electronic services offered to you by Hawaii State Federal Credit Union for your business accounts. In this Agreement, “we,” “us,” “our,” and “Credit Union” refer to Hawaii State Federal Credit Union. “You” means (a) the business, company, partnership, sole proprietorship, entity or other organization (whether incorporated or not) (the “Account Owner”) that requests that the Account be established, whether or not the Account Owner’s name is embossed on any card or access device used to obtain the services; (b) any person whom the Account Owner authorizes, either directly or indirectly, to use the card, access device or Account (the “Cardholder(s)”); and (c) any person who benefits from the use of the Account, card or access device. “Account” means any one or more business share or business checking (share draft) accounts you have with the Credit Union. For the purpose of this Agreement, electronic transfers are electronically initiated transfers of money from your business account through the electronic services described below.

This Agreement supplements, but does not replace, any other agreements, disclosures, terms and conditions, and other information that we have provided to you, all of which continue to be applicable to your Hawaii State FCU accounts and services, such as your account card, business membership and account agreement, arbitration agreement (if applicable), business rate schedule, business fee schedule, business website and mobile services agreement, funds availability policy, overdraft disclosure, and other agreements, disclosures, terms and conditions, and notices. See <https://www.hawaiistatefcu.com/disclosures/>. Additional requirements and restrictions also may be set forth in the instructions when you make a transaction.

1. BUSINESS USE ONLY – By signing an application or account card for electronic services, signing or using your card or access device, or using any electronic service, you agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement and any amendments for the electronic services offered. You agree and warrant to us that the use of the services by the authorized users shall be exclusively for business and commercial purposes. You further agree that we have no obligation to monitor use of the account, and that any consumer use shall be grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT THE SERVICES WILL NOT BE TREATED AS A CONSUMER ACCESS DEVICE UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER ACT OR ANY OTHER STATE OR FEDERAL LAW. THEREFORE, YOU WILL NOT HAVE THE BENEFIT OF ANY LIMITATION OF LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO THE UNAUTHORIZED USE OF THE SERVICES. YOU AGREE TO ACCEPT ALL RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE USE OR MISUSE OF THE SERVICES AND AGREE TO ASSUME THE LIABILITY DESCRIBED IN THIS AGREEMENT. YOU ALSO AGREE TO ELECTRONICALLY ACCEPT DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY FUTURE AMENDMENT TO THIS AGREEMENT. For accounts and services for consumer purposes, please contact the Credit Union.

2. ELECTRONIC SERVICES – If approved, you may conduct any one or more of the electronic services offered by the Credit Union, subject to the restrictions imposed by the Credit Union from time to time.

a. Debit Card. If approved, you may use your debit card to purchase goods and services from participating merchants. However, you may not use your card to initiate any type of electronic gambling transactions through the internet. If you wish to pay for goods or services over the internet, you may be required to provide card number security information before you will be permitted to complete the transaction. You agree that you will not use your card for any transaction that is illegal under applicable federal, state, or local law. Funds to cover your card purchases will be deducted from your account. If the available balance in your account is not sufficient to pay the transaction amount, the Credit Union may pay the amount and treat the transaction as a request to transfer funds from other deposit accounts, approved overdraft protection accounts or loan accounts that you have established with the Credit Union. If you initiate a transaction that overdraws your account, you agree to make immediate payment of any overdrafts together with any service charges to the Credit Union. In the event of repeated overdrafts, the Credit Union may suspend or terminate services under this Agreement, suspend or terminate your account, and take other action to enforce your debt.

You may use your card and personal identification number (PIN) in ATMs of the Credit Union, and participating networks, and such other machines or facilities as the Credit Union may designate. (See www.HawaiiStateFCU.com/locations-atms for a listing of participating networks.) In addition, you may use your Visa card without a PIN for certain transactions with participating networks. However, provisions of this Agreement relating only to Visa debit transactions, such as additional limits on your liability and streamlined error resolution procedures, do not apply to transactions processed through non-Visa networks. To initiate a Visa debit transaction, you may sign a receipt, provide a card number, or swipe or insert your card at a point-of-sale (POS) terminal and choose to route the transaction over a Visa network.

At the present time, you may also use your card to:

- Make deposits to your designated accounts.
- Withdraw funds from your designated accounts.
- Transfer funds from your designated accounts.
- Obtain balance information for your designated accounts.
- Access your Overdraft Protection Plan accounts.
- Make point-of-sale (POS) transactions with your card and personal identification number (PIN) to purchase goods or services at merchants that accept Visa debit or at POS terminals that carry the logo(s) of participating network(s).
- Order goods or services by mail or telephone from places that accept Visa debit.

The following limitations on Debit Card transactions may apply:

- There is no limit on the number of Debit Card purchases you make per day.
- You may purchase up to a maximum of $5,000 per day.
- You may withdraw up to a maximum of $600 in any one (1) day from an ATM.
- For security purposes, there are other limits on the frequency and amount of transfers available at ATMs.
- You may transfer up to the available balance in your account at the time of the transfer.
- See Section 3 for transfer and withdrawal limitations that may apply to these transactions.

Card Information Updates and Authorizations. If you have authorized a merchant to bill charges to your card on a recurring basis, it is your responsibility to notify the merchant in the event your card is replaced, your card information (such as card number and expiration date) changes, or the account associated with your card is closed. However, if your card is replaced or card information changes, you authorize us, without obligation on our part, to provide the updated card information to the merchant in order to permit the merchant to bill recurring charges to the card. You authorize us to apply such recurring charges to the card until you notify the merchant that you are revoking the merchant’s authorization for the charges to your card and the revocation is processed.

Your card is automatically enrolled in an information updating service. Through this service, your updated card information (such as card number and expiration date) may be shared with participating merchants to facilitate continued recurring charges. Updates are not guaranteed. You are responsible for making direct payment until recurring charges resume and for assuring that the merchant has your updated card information.

b. Preauthorized Electronic Services.

- Direct Deposits. Upon instruction of (i) the Treasury Department or (ii) other financial institutions, the Credit Union will accept direct deposits of payments to your business share or business checking account.
- Preauthorized Debits. Upon instruction, we will pay certain recurring transactions from your business share or checking account.

See Section 3 for transfer and withdrawal limitations that may apply to these transactions.

- Stop Payment Rights. If you have arranged in advance to make electronic transfers out of your account(s) for money you owe others, you may stop payment on preauthorized transfers from your account. You must notify us orally or in writing at any time up to three (3) business days before the scheduled date of the transfer. We may require written confirmation of the stop payment order to be made within 14 days of any oral notification. If we do not receive the written confirmation, the oral stop payment order shall cease to be binding 14 days after it has been made. A stop payment request may apply to a single transfer, multiple transfers, or all future transfers as directed by you, and will remain in effect for six months, unless you withdraw your request or all transfers subject to the request have been returned. Contact us if you want to extend the stop payment order (additional fees apply).

• Notice of Varying Amounts. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay is required to tell you, ten (10) days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.

• Notice to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers. We require at least three (3) business days' notice to stop payment of a preauthorized transfer.

c. Electronic Check Conversion/Electronic Returned Check Fees. If you pay for purchases or bills with a check or draft, you may authorize your check or draft to be converted to an electronic transfer. You may also authorize merchants or other payees to electronically debit your account for returned check fees. You are considered to have authorized these electronic transfers if you complete the transaction after being told (orally or by a notice posted or sent to you) that the transfer may be processed electronically or if you sign a written authorization.

d. Online and Mobile Banking. If Online and Mobile Banking is activated for your account(s), you will be required to use secure login information to access the account(s). Please refer to the business website and mobile services agreement for more information. At the present time, you may use Online and Mobile Banking to:

- Contact us through live chat and secure email support.
- Determine if a particular item has cleared.
- Make bill payments to creditors.
- Manage external accounts.
- Make loan payments from your share, checking, and loan accounts.
- Obtain balance information for your share, checking, loan, certificate, and credit card accounts.
- Obtain tax information on dividends earned on share and checking accounts or interest paid on loan accounts.
- Place check stop payments.
- Setup account alerts via SMS text, Push Notification or Email.
- Setup alerts and controls on your debit card.
- Set up recurring transfers.
- Transfer funds from your share, checking, and line of credit accounts.
- Verify the date and amount of recent deposits.
- View eStatements.

Your accounts can be accessed under Online or Mobile Banking from a personal computer or mobile device that has internet access. Online and Mobile Banking will be available for your convenience 24 hours per day. This service may be interrupted for a short time each day for data processing. The service will discontinue if no transaction is entered after numerous unsuccessful attempts to enter a transaction and there may be limits on the duration of each access.

The following limitations on Online and Mobile Banking transactions may apply:

- There is no limit to the number of inquiries, transfers, or withdrawal requests you may make in any one (1) day.
- Transactions are limited to the available funds in your account.
- See Section 3 for transfer and withdrawal limitations that may apply to these transactions.

e. Internet Bill Payment Service. We will process bill payment transfer requests only to those creditors the Credit Union has designated in the User Instructions and such creditors as you authorize and for whom the Credit Union has the proper vendor code number. We will not process any bill payment transfer if the required transaction information is incomplete. Please refer to the business website and mobile services agreement for more information.

We will withdraw the designated funds from your business checking account for bill payment transfer two (2) business days after the date you schedule for payment. We will process your bill payment transfer within a designated number of days before the date you schedule for payment. You must allow sufficient time for vendors to process your payment after they receive a transfer from us. Please leave as much time as though you were sending your payment by mail. We cannot guarantee the time that any payment will be credited to your account by the vendor.

The following limitations on Internet Bill Payment Service transactions may apply:

- There is no limit on the number of bill payments per day.
- The maximum dollar amount of bill payments that can be requested each day is $10,000.

f. General. If you have enrolled in our overdraft protection program for your account, we may honor debit transactions when that account has insufficient available funds by transferring available funds from another account or a line of credit as you have directed, for debit card transactions, preauthorized electronic transfers, electronic check conversions, and internet bill payments, as described in our overdraft protection (ODP) authorization form and our overdraft disclosure.

We reserve the right to refuse any transaction which would draw upon insufficient available funds, exceed a credit limit, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. We may set other limits on the amount of any transaction and will notify you as required by law. We may (but are not required to) process any transaction in excess of your available balance or other transaction limits, in accordance with our overdraft policy. If you initiate a transaction that overdraws your account, you agree to make immediate payment of any overdrafts together with any service charges to the Credit Union, in accordance with our overdraft policy. In the event of repeated overdrafts, we may terminate all services under this Agreement, suspend or terminate your account, and take other action to enforce our rights.

Unless we are permitted by law to do so, after we have time to process notice of a bankruptcy filing, we will stop transferring funds from the bankruptcy debtor's Credit Union account to pay Credit Union loans if such transfers were only authorized prior to the bankruptcy filing.

The availability of checks deposited through ATM, Online or Mobile Banking may be delayed. To avoid delay, you may go to any Hawaii State FCU branch to make your deposit.

3. TRANSFER LIMITATIONS – For all business share accounts, you may make no more than six (6) transfers and withdrawals from your account to another account of yours or to a third party in any month by means of a preauthorized, automatic, or internet transfer, by telephonic order or instruction, or by check, draft, debit card or similar order. Transactions that exceed the transfer and withdrawal limitations may not be processed. If you exceed these limitations, your account may be subject to a fee or be closed. (The six-transfer limit does not apply to withdrawals made in person, by mail, messenger or at an ATM, or for telephone requests for withdrawals in the form of a check or draft which is then mailed directly to you, although we may impose a fee for such services.)

4. CONDITIONS OF ELECTRONIC SERVICES

a. Ownership of Cards. Any card or other device which we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or to any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to honor the card, immediately according to instructions. The card may be repossessed at any time at our sole discretion without demand or notice. You cannot transfer your card or account to another person.

b. Authorized Users. The account card for your business accounts and the application or other related documents for your loan accounts identify who is authorized to make transfer requests, obtain advances, stop payments, obtain ancillary services and otherwise give us instructions regarding your accounts. Although those documents may indicate that more than one (1) signature is required on checks, for the withdrawal or transfer of funds, or to obtain a credit advance, that notation is solely for your own internal control purposes. We have no duty to support multiple signature requirements in connection with any services. Furthermore, we have no duty to confirm that two (2) or more (or any combination) of authorized signers on an account are Authorized Users or have approved any transaction.

c. Honoring the Card. Neither we nor merchants authorized to honor the card will be responsible for the failure or refusal to honor the card or any other device we supply to you. If a merchant agrees to give you a refund or adjustment, you agree to accept a credit to your account in lieu of a cash refund.

d. Foreign Transactions.

Visa. Purchases and cash withdrawals made in foreign currencies will be debited from your account in U.S. dollars. The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is a rate selected by

Visa from a range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa itself receives or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The exchange rate used on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or the statement posting date.

A fee of 1.00% of the amount of the transaction, calculated in U.S. dollars, will be imposed on all foreign transactions, including purchases, cash withdrawals and credits to your account. A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete or a merchant completes on your card outside of the United States, with the exception of U.S. military bases, U.S. territories, U.S. embassies or U.S. consulates.

e. Security of Access Code. You may use one (1) or more access codes with your electronic services. The access codes issued to you are for your security purposes. Any access codes issued to you are confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded on or with the card. You are responsible for safekeeping your access codes, and for all acts or omissions that occur through the use of such information subject to applicable law. Furthermore, you understand and agree that lax security measures, such as simple or easily accessible passwords, carry a significantly greater risk of loss than more rigorous measures, and you accept that risk. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your access codes available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to use your access codes, that authority shall continue until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union. You understand that any person with an access code may withdraw or transfer funds from any and all of your accounts. If you fail to maintain the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your electronic services immediately.

f. Internet Debits. Internet debits (e.g., bill payments and other withdrawals) may be charged against your account before any deposits are credited to your account. If your available balance is insufficient to pay all debits, we may elect to pay or reject debits in any order.

5. FEES – There are certain fees and charges for electronic services. For a current listing of all applicable fees, see our current business fee schedule. From time to time, the fees may be changed. We will notify you of any changes as required by applicable law.

Multiple fees and surcharges may be charged for each balance inquiry and each transaction processed during a single use of your card.

If you use an ATM not operated by us, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator and by any international, national, regional, or local network used in processing the transaction (and you may be charged a fee for a balance inquiry even if you do not complete a transfer). The ATM surcharge will be debited from your account if you elect to complete the transaction or continue with the balance inquiry.

6. LOST, STOLEN OR COMPROMISED PASSWORDS; UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS AND YOUR LIABILITY – You will have an identification code and a password to use the electronic services. It is your responsibility to protect the secrecy of this information. You are financially responsible for anyone using this information (unless someone has stolen that information from us). Do not disclose your identification code or password to others or record them on documentation or records located on or around your computer or other documents associated with your account.

If you permit someone else to use an electronic service, your card or your access code, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts.

TELL US AT ONCE if you believe your card or access code has been lost or stolen, if you believe someone has used your card or access code or otherwise accessed your accounts without your authority, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). You will continue to be liable for all transfers and transactions initiated by use of the electronic services until you change your access code. If you fail to notify us that your card or access code has been lost or stolen, you could lose all of the money in your accounts. You further agree that we will not be liable for consequential damages arising from the unauthorized use of the electronic Services that access your accounts. Please note that transactions initiated by someone to whom you have given your card and/or access code are not considered unauthorized transactions.

1 (888) 586-1056 Toll Free (Neighbor Islands & Continental USA)

You should also call the number or write to the address listed above if you believe a transfer has been made using the information from your check without your permission.

If a transaction was made with your card or card number without your permission and was a Visa transaction, you may receive replacement funds on a provisional basis, which may be withheld, delayed, limited or rescinded in the event of: gross negligence or fraud; delay in reporting unauthorized use; investigation and verification of claims; account standing and history. The transaction at issue must be posted to your account before replacement funds may be issued.

NOTE: If the error you assert is an unauthorized Visa transaction, other than a cash disbursement at an ATM, we will credit your account within five (5) business days unless we determine that the circumstances or your account history warrant a delay, in which case you may receive credit within ten (10) business days.

6. DOCUMENTATION

a. Periodic Statements. Transfers and withdrawals made through any ATM or POS terminal, debit card transactions, audio response transactions, preauthorized electronic transfers, online/PC transactions, mobile access device transactions or bill payments you make will be recorded on your periodic statement. You will receive a statement monthly unless there is no transaction in a particular month. In any case, you will receive a statement at least quarterly.

b. Terminal Receipt. You can get a receipt at the time you make any transaction (except inquiries) involving your account using an ATM or point-of-sale (POS) terminal.

c. Direct Deposit. If you have arranged to have a direct deposit made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same source and you do not receive a receipt or other confirmation from the sender, you can find out whether or not the deposit has been made by calling (808) 587-2700 (Oahu) or toll-free 1 (888) 586-1056 (Neighbor Islands & Continental USA). This does not apply to transactions occurring outside the United States.

7. ACCOUNT INFORMATION DISCLOSURE – We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

- As necessary to complete transfers.
- To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant.
- If your account is eligible for emergency cash or emergency card replacement services and you request such services, you agree that we may provide personal information about you and your account that is necessary to provide you with the requested services.
- To comply with government agency or court orders.
- If you give us your written permission.
- As otherwise permitted by law.

8. BUSINESS DAYS – For purposes of these disclosures, our business days are Monday through Friday, excluding Credit Union holidays.

9. AS IS; ASSUMPTION OF RISK; LIABILITY; WAIVER – You agree that we are providing the electronic services on an “AS IS” basis without any warranty of any kind, either express or implied, including but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. You agree that you are using the electronic services at your sole risk and you assume all liability therefor. Please refer to your Business Membership and Account Agreement for limitations regarding the Credit Union Liability and other important limitations.

The Credit Union is not responsible for any errors, failures, losses or damages involving any system unavailability or malfunction. Access to electronic services may be unavailable at times because of routine or special maintenance, system outages, earthquakes, fires, floods, computer failures, interruptions in telephone service, electrical outages, failure or unavailability of an internet service provider, or other causes.

The Credit Union is not responsible for any errors or failures due to any malfunction of your computer or the software, or unsuitability of your computer or software, or any virus, or any problems that may be associated with the use of the electronic services.

In no event will the Credit Union be responsible if (1) through no fault of ours, there is not enough available funds in your accounts to complete the transaction, if any funds in your accounts necessary to complete the transaction are held as uncollected funds pursuant to our funds availability policy disclosure, or if the transaction involves a loan request exceeding your credit limit; (2) you used your card or access code in an incorrect manner; (3) the ATM where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash; (4) the ATM was not working properly and you knew about the problem when you started the transaction; (5) circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, or power failure) prevent the transaction; (6) funds in your account are subject to legal process or other claim; (7) funds in your account are pledged as collateral or frozen because of a delinquent loan; (8) the error was caused by a system of any participating ATM network; (9) the electronic transfer is not completed as a result of your willful or negligent use of your card, access code, or any electronic facility for making such transfers; (10) the telephone or computer equipment you use to conduct audio response or online/PC or mobile banking transactions is not working properly and you know or should have known about the breakdown when you started the transaction; or (11) any other exceptions apply as established by the Credit Union.

If you have bill payment services, we can only confirm the amount, the participating merchant, and date of the bill payment transfer made by the Credit Union. For any other error or question you have involving the billing statement of the participating merchant, you must contact the merchant directly. We are not responsible for investigating such errors.

In no event will we be responsible for any items, payments, transactions, or other discrepancies reflected on your statement or other notice if you fail to notify us within 14 days after the date we posted or sent the statement or notice to you, or you otherwise discovered the discrepancy, whichever is soonest.

Except as otherwise required by law, you agree that our aggregate annual liability with respect to your account shall be limited to the greater of the annual fee (if any) charged by us to maintain your account, the annual fee (if any) for the applicable service charged by us, or $100; in no event will the Credit Union be liable for any consequential damages.

You agree to cooperate with the Credit Union in obtaining reimbursement or other recourse from any person who received funds incorrectly, and to offset any amount owed by you to the recipient or its affiliates.

10. BILLING ERRORS – You agree to examine your account statements promptly each month and immediately report any discrepancies or errors by calling or writing to us at the address or the telephone number provided below.

Call us: During Credit Union Hours
(808) 587-2700 (Oahu) or
1 (888) 586-1056 Toll Free (Neighbor Islands & Continental USA)

Or Write to: Hawaii State Federal Credit Union

11. NOTICES – All notices from us will be effective when we have mailed them or delivered them to the appropriate address in the Credit Union's records. Notices from you will be effective when received by the Credit Union at the address specified in this Agreement and we have time to process it. Subject to applicable law, this Agreement is subject to change by the Credit Union at any time in our sole discretion. Use of this service is subject to existing regulations governing the Credit Union account and any future changes to those regulations.

a. Security Measures – In order to help mitigate harm to you and your account, we may contact you on any telephone number associated with your account, including a wireless telephone number (i.e. cell phone number), or by email, to deliver to you any security messages related to suspected or actual fraudulent activity on your account, data security breaches or identity theft following a data breach, money transfers or any other exigent messages permitted by applicable law. To receive these security messages, it is important that you inform us if your telephone or email address changes. You will have an opportunity to opt-out of security messages at the time of delivery.

b. Protect Your Identity – We will never contact you by email, text, telephone, mail or other type of correspondence and request your PIN, password, username, or other access code. If you are contacted by anyone asking for your PIN, password, username or other access code, you should refuse and contact us immediately. You may be the target of identity theft.

c. Time-Sensitive Messages – If you have an important message for us that is time-sensitive (for example, if you want to report a lost or stolen ATM card or credit card, if you want to stop payment on a check, or if you have other information which requires prompt action), do not rely on email, as we may not check our email messages regularly. Instead, please telephone us immediately. We also may require that you send us your comments in writing.

d. General Email Messages – You may send us general email messages by contacting us at memberservices@hsfcu.com. Do not include any personal or confidential information in any email that you send to us, whether through our website or through a different email provider. Email is NOT SECURE. Never email your account number, PIN, password, username, other access code, or social security number.

e. Confirmation – Whenever you email us, if you do not receive a response from us (not counting a receipt automatically generated by the computer) within one business day, please contact us to confirm that we received your email and are addressing your concern.

13. SAFETY PRECAUTIONS FOR ATMs AND NIGHT DEPOSITS – The following information is a list of safety precautions regarding the use of ATMs and night deposit facilities:

- Be aware of your surroundings, particularly at night.
- Consider having someone accompany you when the ATM or night deposit facility is used after dark.
- Close the entry door of any ATM facility equipped with a door.
- If another person is uncomfortably close to you at the time of your transaction, ask the person to step back before you complete your transaction. If it is after the regular hours of the financial institution and you are using an ATM, do not permit entrance to any person you do not know.
- Refrain from displaying your cash at the ATM or night deposit facility. As soon as your transaction is completed, place your money in your purse or wallet. Count the cash later in the safety of your car or home.
- If you notice anything suspicious at the ATM or night deposit facility, consider using another ATM or night deposit facility or coming back later. If you are in the middle of a transaction and you notice something suspicious, cancel the transaction, take your card or deposit envelope, and leave.
- If you are followed after making a transaction, go to the nearest public area where people are located.
- Do not write your personal identification number (PIN) or access code on your ATM card.
- Report all crimes to law enforcement officials immediately. If emergency assistance is needed, call the police from the nearest available public telephone.

14. TERMINATION OF ELECTRONIC SERVICES – You may terminate this Agreement or any electronic service under this Agreement at any time by notifying us in writing and stopping your use of your card and any access code. You must return all cards to the Credit Union. You also agree to notify any participating merchants that authority to make bill payment transfers has been revoked. We may also terminate this Agreement at any time by notifying you orally or in writing. If we terminate this Agreement, we may notify any participating merchants making preauthorized debits or credits to any of your accounts that this Agreement has been terminated and that we will not accept any further preauthorized transaction instructions. We may also program our system not to accept your card or access code for any electronic service. Whether you or the Credit Union terminates this Agreement, the termination shall not affect your obligations under this Agreement for any electronic transactions made prior to termination.

15. PROPER CONDUCT – You agree that your use of the Account and any service will comply with all applicable law, and that you will not use the Account or any Service or electronic communication feature for any conduct or purpose that is unlawful, tortious, abusive, intrusive, harassing, libelous, defamatory, embarrassing, obscene, threatening or hateful.

You agree that you will not collect or store personal data about other users. You agree that you will not transmit any material that contains a virus or any other computer code, file, program or anything else that might interfere with the functionality of any computer software, hardware, telecommunications equipment or anything else. With the exception of using web browser software, you agree that you will not access or log on to the Credit Union's computer systems, website or software, or obtain, download, transfer or transmit any content to or from our computer systems, website or software.

16. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION AND VENUE IN HAWAII; APPLICABLE LAW – This Agreement is governed by the bylaws of the Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, the laws and regulations of the State of Hawaii (excluding its choice of law provisions) to the extent not preempted by federal law, and local clearinghouse and other payment system rules, as amended from time to time. Any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts in Honolulu, Hawaii (the court of the county in which the Credit Union's principal administrative office is located).

17. ENFORCEMENT – You are liable to us for any losses, costs or expenses we incur resulting from your use of the electronic services, any dispute involving your account or services, or your failure to follow this Agreement. You authorize us to deduct any such losses, costs or expenses from your account without prior notice to you. If you do not have sufficient available funds in your account to cover any debits or costs or fees that we have assessed or incurred in connection with your account or services, you agree that you will pay us such amounts immediately upon demand. If we bring a legal action to collect any amount due under or to enforce this Agreement, we shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment of reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any postjudgment collection actions. Should any one or more provisions of these rules or the provisions of your account agreement be determined illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then such provision shall be modified and enforced by the court to the maximum extent allowed. Any such modification shall not affect any other provision of these rules.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY

This disclosure describes your ability to withdraw funds at Hawaii State Federal Credit Union. It only applies to the availability of funds in Share Draft/Checking accounts. The credit union reserves the right to delay the availability of funds deposited to Share/Savings and Term Share accounts for periods longer than those disclosed in this policy. Please ask us if you have a question about which accounts are affected by this policy.

1. General Policy. Our policy is to make funds from cash and check deposits available to you on the business day we receive your deposit, if the deposit is made at one of our branches, in person to an employee of the credit union. Electronic direct deposits will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Once they are available, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written. Please remember that even after we make funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

2. Determining the Availability of your Deposits. For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit in person at any one of our branches before the close of business on a day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after the close of the business day or on a day we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day that we are open.

3. Reservation of Right to Hold. In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the business day we receive your deposit. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, funds may not be available until the third (3rd) business day after the day of your deposit. However, the first $200 of your deposit will be available immediately on the business day of your deposit. If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the business day we receive your deposit, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is made by mail, or drop box, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice no later than the business day after we receive your deposit. If you will need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask us when the funds will be available.

4. Longer Delays May Apply. We may delay your ability to withdraw funds deposited by check into your account an additional number of days for these reasons:

- We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- You deposit checks totaling more than $5,000 on any one day.
- You deposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six (6) months.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh (7th) business day after the day of your deposit. We reserve the right to refuse or return any deposit, to limit the amount of any deposit, or to accept a check or item for collection only.

5. Special Rules for New Accounts. If you are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first thirty (30) days your account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers and the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, travelers, and federal, state, and local government checks will be available immediately on the business day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you. The excess over $5,000 will be available on the seventh (7th) business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second (2nd) business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the seventh (7th) business day after the day of your deposit.

6. Holds On Other Funds. If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another financial institution, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the checks we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it. If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another account with us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described in this disclosure for the type of check you deposited.

7. Special Rules for Deposits Made through ATMs, Shared Branching, and Remote Deposit Capture. Deposits made through ATMs, shared branching, and remote deposit capture are immediately posted to your account. However, those deposits are subject to verification and are not available for immediate withdrawal. The first $200 of checks deposited will be available immediately on the business day of your deposit (irrespective of the manner in which the checks are deposited); the remainder may not be available until the third (3rd) business day after the day of your deposit. We will not provide you with separate notice of the hold for deposits made through ATM, shared-branching, or remote deposit capture. However, you may check your "available funds" balance via online banking, mobile banking, phone banking (Private Line), or by contacting us. Checks deposited through ATMs, shared branching or remote deposit capture are subject to additional check hold provisions stated in this Policy. Limitations may apply.

The daily deposit cut-off time is 12:00 Noon HST for remote deposit capture deposits, and 1:00 pm HST for ATM deposits, Monday through Friday excluding state and federal holidays. Checks deposited on or before the cut-off time are considered received on the same day. Deposits made after the cut-off time or on Saturday, Sunday, state and federal holidays are considered deposited on the next business day. (We may extend our cut-off times by one hour when California observes daylight savings times.)

OVERDRAFT DISCLOSURE

This Overdraft Disclosure contains important information regarding overdrafts; your account balance; overdrawn accounts; posting transactions to your account; pre-authorization commitments; overdraft payment service; overdraft and returned item fees; overdraft protection program (transfers); linking a line of credit; minimizing fees; and other information.

Please read this disclosure carefully. It supplements your applicable consumer Membership and Account Agreement or Business Membership and Account Agreement; Consumer Fee Schedule or Business Fee Schedule; Funds Availability Policy; and all other agreements and disclosures applicable to your accounts. Some of the services and examples set forth below may not apply to all of your accounts. If you have questions, please see a branch representative or call our Member Service Call Center at (808) 587 2700 (Oahu) or toll-free 1 (888) 586 1056 (Neighbor Islands and Continental USA) during our business hours.

"Overdraft" means there is not enough available balance in your account to pay for a transaction, item or fee. "You," "your" and "yours" mean the account owner. The "Credit Union," "we," "us," "our" and "ours" mean Hawaii State Federal Credit Union.

1. YOUR ACCOUNT BALANCE. Your share accounts and your share draft/checking accounts have two kinds of balances: the "current" balance (also called the "actual" balance) and the "available" balance. Both can be checked when you review your account online, use our app or phone banking service, at ATMs that we own (e.g., ATMs in our branches or bearing our name), by phone to our Call Center, or at a Credit Union branch. It is important to understand how the two balances work so that you know how much money is in your account at any given time. This section explains current balances and available balances and how they work.

Your current balance is the total amount of money that is in your account at any given time. It reflects the full amount of all deposits to your account, even though some portion of a deposit may not be available to you or may be pending receipt of funds from a third party, less payment transactions that have "posted" to your account. It does not, however, include preauthorized commitments to pay merchants that are pending settlement (i.e., have not yet been paid or posted to your account), nor checks or other payments that have not yet posted. Thus, while the term "current" may sound as though the amount you see is an up-to-date display of what is in your account that you can spend, that is not always the case. For example, if you have a $50 current balance, but you just wrote a check for $40, then your current balance is $50 but it does not reflect the pending $40 check transaction. At that point, you actually have $50 in your account, but you have already spent $40.

Your available balance is the amount of money in your account that is immediately available for use. The available balance includes adjustments for factors such as restrictions placed on deposits and preauthorization commitments that the Credit Union has made but that have not yet posted to your account. Your available balance also may be reduced by the amounts that you have pledged to secure loans, amounts that are subject to garnishment or other judicial process, etc. For example, assume you have a current balance of $50 and an available balance of $50. If you were to swipe your debit card at a merchant to buy groceries for $20, then that merchant could ask us to guarantee or authorize the payment. In that case, we will reduce your available balance by the amount of the "pre-authorization commitment," which is $20. Your current balance would still be $50 because this transaction has not yet posted, but your available balance would be $30 because you have a commitment to pay the merchant $20. When the merchant submits its bill for payment (which could be several days later), your current balance will be reduced by the amount of the posted transaction (in this example, $20) and both your current and available balance will be $30.

2. WHEN IS YOUR ACCOUNT OVERDRAWN? Available balance is used to determine when your account is overdrawn. The following example illustrates how this works. Again, assume your current balance and available balance are both $50, and you swipe your debit card at a merchant for $20. The merchant requests a pre-authorization commitment and we reduce your available balance to $30. Your current balance is still $50. Before the merchant transaction is sent to us for payment, a check that you wrote for $40 clears. Because you have only $30 available (you have a commitment to pay the merchant $20), your account will be overdrawn by $10, even though your current balance is $50. In this case, we may pay the $40 check, but you will be charged an overdraft fee for the $40 transaction, even though your current balance may exceed the amount of the transaction. That fee will be deducted from your account, further reducing the balance. When the merchant requests payment for the $20 transaction, your available balance will be insufficient to cover the $20 transaction. This will result in an overdraft fee for the $20 transaction also, even though your available balance was sufficient at the time the pre-authorization commitment for the transaction was approved.

IT IS VERY IMPORTANT TO UNDERSTAND THAT YOU MAY STILL OVERDRAW YOUR ACCOUNT EVEN THOUGH THE AVAILABLE BALANCE APPEARS TO SHOW THERE ARE SUFFICIENT FUNDS TO COVER A TRANSACTION THAT YOU WANT TO MAKE. Your available balance may not reflect all of your outstanding checks, automatic bill payments that you have authorized, or other outstanding transactions that have not been paid from your account. In the example above, the outstanding check will not be reflected in your available balance until it is presented to us and paid from your account. Your available balance also may not reflect recent deposits to your account that are subject to our Funds Availability Policy.

In addition, your available balance may not reflect all of your pending debit card or ATM card transactions. For example, if a merchant obtains a pre-authorization commitment but does not submit a one-time debit card transaction for payment within three (3) business days after pre-authorization, we may increase your available balance by the amount of the pre-authorization commitment. This means that your available balance will not reflect the pending transaction until the transaction has been received by us and paid from your account (i.e., posted). (Note that this commonly happens with certain types of pre-authorized commitments, such as car rentals and international purchases, depending on the merchant.) Even though we may increase your available balance when a merchant does not submit the transaction for payment in a timely manner, the obligation to the merchant still applies. The time period for the pre-authorization commitment may be different for certain types of merchants such as gas stations that may have pre-authorization commitment period of several hours, or for transactions or accounts that involve suspicious or unusual activity.

The Credit Union's determination of an insufficient available account balance may be made at any time between presentation and the Credit Union's midnight deadline with only one review of the account required. We do not have to notify you if your account does not have sufficient available funds in order to pay an item.

3. POSTING TRANSACTIONS TO YOUR ACCOUNT. The two basic types of transactions for your account are: (i) credits (deposits) into your account, and (ii) debits (withdrawals or payments) out of your account. We may receive multiple credit and debit transactions on your account in many different forms throughout the day. This is a general description of how certain types of transactions are posted and exceptions may apply. These practices may change and we reserve the right to pay items in any order we chose as permitted by law.

Some items are received by us individually and others are received in batches. Items that we receive individually are posted to your account immediately upon receipt, in the order received. (Items received by mail are not processed on weekends or holidays, and may be processed in random order.) Individual debits that we receive electronically are posted 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Items that we receive by batch are aggregated and processed before the start of the next processing day, first by processing all batched credits; then by processing all batched ACH debits, from low to high dollar value; and then by processing all batched checks, from low to high dollar value. Pending transactions are subject to reversal. ACH items that have a future settlement date (such as payroll deposits, government benefits, and ACH recurring debits) are processed prior to the start of business on the settlement date. There may be exceptions on when debits are posted, or a delay in receiving ACH and other third-party deposits. You may contact the Credit Union to confirm whether a debit or deposit has been posted, to determine availability of deposited funds, and to determine your available balance.

When we post an item to your account, your current balance will immediately decrease by the amount of the transaction. Items that we often receive individually include ATM withdrawals and over-the-counter teller transactions. Examples of items that we often receive in batches include checks drawn on your account presented by other financial institutions and ACH transactions. We may receive debits for purchase transactions made with your debit card or ATM card individually or in batches, depending on the merchant. Exceptions may apply. It is important to understand how each is applied to your account so that you know how much money you have and how much is available to you at any given time. This section explains how and when we post transactions to your account.

Checks, drafts, transactions, and other items may not be processed in the order that you make them or in the order that we receive them. We may, at our discretion, pay a check, draft, or item, and execute other transactions on your account in any order we choose. In most cases, we will follow the order set forth in this disclosure. The order in which we process checks, drafts, or items, and execute other transactions on your account may affect the items that are paid and the total amount of overdraft and returned item fees that may be charged to your account. We may choose our order of processing items irrespective of the fees that may result. Please contact us if you have questions about how we pay checks or drafts and process transfers and withdrawals.

Credits. We reserve the right to refuse any item for deposit into your account. Your available balance may not reflect the most recent deposits to your account. For details on the availability of funds that are deposited, see our "Funds Availability Policy," which is available at any branch or online at www.hawaiistatefcu.com/funds-availability-policy.

Debits. There are several types of debit (withdrawal) transactions. Common types of debit transactions are described below. Note that there are many ways transactions are presented for payment by merchants, and the Credit Union is not necessarily in control of when transactions are received.

- ACH Debits. Multiple Automated Clearing House (ACH) transactions are sent to us by the Federal Reserve Bank in a data file (i.e., batched). ACH debits include, for example, automatic bill payments that you have authorized. ACH debits may be arranged by you with a payee (such as your utility company or insurance company), or in person at a Credit Union branch. ACH debits are posted on the settlement date.
- ATM Withdrawals, Teller Withdrawals, Private Line Telephone Transfers. When you make a withdrawal at an ATM or Teller, or a Private Line telephone transfer, it is processed individually and deducted from your account immediately.
- Checks. When you write a check, the check may be processed through a clearing unit, such as a Federal Reserve Bank, which sends us multiple checks in a clearing file (i.e., batched). On-us checks cashed at any of our branches are processed individually and deducted from your account immediately.
- Online Banking Transfers. When you use our Online Banking Service to make transfers between your Credit Union accounts, transfers that are scheduled for a future date are batched and are not reflected in your current balance or your available balance until the day that the transfer is made. When you use Online Banking to make a same-day transfer, transfers are processed individually and deducted from your account immediately.
- Mobile Banking Transfers. When you use our Mobile Banking Service to make transfers between your Credit Union accounts, transfers are processed individually and deducted from your account immediately.
- Internet Bill Payments. When you use our Internet Bill Payment Service, payments may not be reflected in your current balance or your available balance until two (2) business days after the scheduled payment date.
- PIN-Based Purchase Transactions. A Personal Identification Number (PIN)-based purchase transaction occurs when your debit card or ATM card is used to make a purchase and the merchant processes the transaction through a PIN debit network, such as Star or Interlink. (A purchase transaction may be a PIN-based transaction even if the merchant does not require you to enter your PIN.) A PIN-based purchase transaction is similar to an ATM withdrawal because money usually is deducted from your account immediately at the time of the transaction. Some PIN-based purchase transactions, however, are not presented for payment immediately, depending on the merchant.
- Signature-Based Purchase Transactions. A signature-based purchase transaction occurs when your debit card or ATM card is used to make a purchase and the merchant processes the transaction through a signature-based network, such as Visa. The merchant may require you to sign for the purchase instead of entering a PIN. (In some situations, the merchant may not require a signature, such as for an internet purchase or for a purchase below a certain dollar amount.) Signature-based purchase transactions may be processed individually or batched, depending on the merchant.

4. PRE-AUTHORIZATION COMMITMENTS. A merchant may seek pre-authorization to guarantee that it will be paid for a purchase transaction made with a debit card or ATM card. When this happens we generally reduce your available balance by the amount of the pre-authorization commitment. We reduce your available balance as we receive (and accept) the pre-authorization request, but your current balance is not affected until the transaction is processed by the merchant and submitted to us for payment.

This can happen instantly or sometimes days after the transaction, depending on the merchant. These payment requests generally are received in real time throughout the day and are immediately posted to your account.

Please note: The amount of a pre-authorization commitment may differ from the actual payment because the final transaction amount may not be known to the merchant when the merchant submits a pre-authorization request. For example, a restaurant may request a pre-authorization commitment on your account for the amount of your bill, but when the transaction posts it may be for an amount that includes a tip that you authorized. A difference in amount may also happen when you use your debit card or ATM card at gas stations, hotels, car rental companies, and other establishments. We cannot control how much a merchant asks us to pre-authorize, or how long a merchant takes to submit a transaction for payment.

5. OVERDRAFT PAYMENT SERVICE. If a check, item or transaction is presented without sufficient available funds in your account to pay it, we may, in our discretion, pay the item (creating an overdraft) or return the item. The Credit Union's overdraft policy allows us to authorize payment for the following types of transactions regardless of whether your account has a sufficient available balance: (1) checks and other transactions made using your share draft/checking account, except as otherwise described below; (2) Internet bill payments; and (3) ACH transactions.

Please note that for ATM and one-time debit card transactions for consumer checking accounts, you must affirmatively consent (opt-in) to our overdraft payment service for such coverage. Without your consent, we may not authorize an ATM transaction or a one-time debit card transaction if your consumer checking account does not have sufficient available funds. If you do not opt-in, we will not assess an overdraft fee in a consumer checking account because the transaction is refused and the account will not be overdrawn. Contact the Credit Union to opt-in to, or to disenroll from, our overdraft payment service for ATM transactions and one-time debit card transactions for consumer checking accounts.

6. OVERDRAFT AND RETURNED ITEM FEES. Except as provided above with respect to ATM and one-time debit card transactions for consumer checking accounts, we will assess an overdraft or returned item fee if your available balance is insufficient when we receive a payment to post to your account, regardless of whether or not we pay the item. You may be charged more than one fee if multiple transactions are submitted for payment when the available balance in your account is insufficient (overdrawn). Unless otherwise specified in your account Fee Schedule, a fee will be assessed each time an item is returned, and there is no limit on the total fees that we can charge you for overdrafts on your account. The amounts of the overdraft and returned item fees are disclosed in your account Fee Schedule.

Except as otherwise agreed in writing, if we pay items when your available balance is insufficient, we do not agree to pay them in the future and may discontinue coverage at any time without notice. If we pay these items or impose a fee when your available balance is insufficient, you agree to pay the insufficient amount. You also agree to pay the fee assessed by us in accordance with our standard overdraft services or any other service you may have authorized with us, or if you do not have such protections with us, in accordance with any overdraft payment policy we have, as applicable.

7. OVERDRAFT PROTECTION PROGRAM (TRANSFERS). If we have approved an overdraft protection program for your share draft/checking account, we may honor debit transactions when your account has insufficient available funds by transferring funds from another account or a line of credit (see Section 8 below), as you have directed, or as required under the Credit Union's overdraft policy. Funds will be transferred in multiples of $100 to cover the amount of the overdraft. Funds transferred from your share accounts are subject to the transaction limitations described in your applicable consumer Truth-in-Savings Disclosure or Business Rate Schedule & Account Disclosures. Should the available balance be less than $100, we will transfer all available funds only if they are sufficient to cover the overdraft. If funds are transferred from your share account, we may take your account balance below the minimum balance requirement as described in your account disclosure, and the monthly service fee will apply. The fee for overdraft transfers, if any, is set forth in your account Fee Schedule. Contact the Credit Union to enroll in the overdraft protection program. (In accordance with federal regulations, share (savings) accounts are limited to six (6) preauthorized, automatic, telephone, or audio response transfers (including overdraft protection transfers) to another account for which the member is an accountholder. Transfers beyond the six will not be processed.)

8. LINKING A LINE OF CREDIT. If you have a line of credit with us, you may link your line of credit to your share draft/checking account through our overdraft protection program. When funds are drawn from your line of credit, interest is assessed in accordance with the terms of the line of credit account. As described above, funds generally will be transferred in multiples of $100 to cover the amount of the overdraft. Contact the Credit Union if you want to apply for a line of credit. When you obtain the line of credit, remember to add it to your overdraft protection program.

9. MINIMIZING FEES. The best way to know the amount of available funds you have and to avoid paying overdraft or returned item fees is to record and track all of your transactions closely, including pre-authorization commitments, outstanding checks, ACH debits, internet bill payments, online and mobile banking transfers, Private Line phone banking transactions, restrictions on deposits (or returned deposits), garnishments and other items that reduce your available balance. When in doubt as to the amount of a pre-authorization commitment, we suggest you ask the merchant what its policy is, and how long it takes for the transaction to be submitted for payment.

The Credit Union offers various ways to help you minimize your overdraft and returned item fees. For example, you may enroll in an automatic overdraft protection program which transfers available funds from specified accounts at the Credit Union; or you may apply for a Line of Credit and link the line of credit to your account; or you may decide not to opt-in to the overdraft payment service for consumer checking accounts.
