Hawaii State Federal Credit Union - Standing Rules for Meetings

- This is a private meeting and attendance is restricted to members, staff, and other persons who have been specifically invited by the board. All others are required to leave.
- To ensure that everybody has a chance to speak, the discussion is limited to 2 minutes per speech. This time is not transferrable or divisible and cannot be reserved.
- No member shall be recognized to speak more than twice on the same question, and no member shall be permitted to speak twice on the same question until any other member who has not spoken once has been given the opportunity to speak.
- No taping or other recording is permitted (except for the production of the minutes by the Credit Union) during any of the proceedings unless first approved by the Credit Union members at the meeting.
